ENGLISH DERBY WON BY ARD PATRICK

Skeets Martin, the Yankee Jockey, Rode the Winner—Rising Glass Was Second and Friar Tuck Third—Patrick 7 to 1 in the Betting.

(Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.)
(Copyright, 1902, by the Press Publishing Co.)
LONDON, June 4.—J. Gubbins' brown colt, Ard Patrick, at 7 to 1 against, ridden by J. H. (Skeets) Martin, the American jockey, won the Derby.

Col. P. Clay's Rising Glass was second and the Duke of Portland's Friar Tuck third. Eighteen horses ran. Gubbins also won the Derby a few years ago with the great horse, Galtee More. The betting was 90 to 1 against Rising Glass and 100 to 1 against Friar Tuck.

LONDON, June 4.—Today promises to be an exceptionally brilliant Derby day. King Edward and all the royal family, a number of Indian nabobs and their gorgeously clad suites, foreign potentates here for the coronation, and many distinguished persons from all over the world will be in attendance. There will be an enormous crowd at Epsom, and the demand for coaches is unprecedented. The Derby, named in London who can win it.

Of the two American horses still remaining in the entries for the Derby, named, William C. Whitney's Intruder and James R. Keene's Kearsage, the former is the only one seriously mentioned in the betting. The odds against Intruder are 100 to 1. This price is much shorter than that of the favorite Skeets Martin, who is the result of strong backing following his successful trial with Volodovski, the winner of last year's Derby.

Robert Sevier's Sceptre easily retains the position of first favorite in the betting. The odds being 15 to 8 against her. Her only serious rival, according to the sporting press, is Ard Patrick, owned by John Gubbins. The odds against Ard Patrick are 6 to 1.

Sceptre Still in Prime Condition.
Those who favor Sceptre believe that the only chance for her defeat will be if the sudden hot wave affects her, but it has not done so yet, and she remains in prime condition.

It is reported in sporting circles that Sceptre stands to win $50,000. Sceptre has been refused an offer of $50,000 for her. The King and a brilliant suite attended the race yesterday at Epsom, as did many Americans, and witnessed an unfortunate accident in which three jockeys were injured. The race for the Craven stakes, owing to the unevenness of the turf three horses collided, throwing their riders. One of the injured jockeys was Lane, considered the best in England. He will be unable to ride in the Derby today.

ATTELL MAY NOT MEET CORBETT

Reported From Denver That Corbett Declines to Meet McKenna's Protege.

According to late advices from Denver, the Atteill-Corbett battle announced as arranged for June 6 before the Coliseum Athletic Club of Denver, will probably not take place.

McKenna insists that he has signed articles with Corbett's manager, but without showing them, but the only fight probable is that between Young Corbett and Sullivan, arranged for June 20.

Harry Forbes is now in Denver, and it is thought that an attempt will be made to match Atteill and Forbes in place of Corbett and Atteill.

BIG TENNIS MATCH PLANNED

Cable Challenge From English Has Been Followed by Receipt of Formal Document.

NEW YORK, June 4.—It is now an assured fact that we will have international tennis in the United States this year. The cable challenge from the English association has been followed by the formal document by mail and the officials of the U. S. L. T. A. now have it in their keeping. Since the receipt of the letter the national association has gone right to work. President Dwight has appointed the committee which is to have absolute charge of the international tournament for the year.

The committee consists of Dr. James Dwight, Richard Stevens and Secretary Palmer. As yet the committee has not met, but the members will convene shortly, and the decision as to time and place of the tournament in question will be made at the meeting. The selection will then be submitted to the English committee for its acceptance. After that there will be nothing but the selection of teams, and the nominations for these need not be made until two weeks prior to the date selected for the tournament.

It is safe to assume that this year's English team will be fully as strong as, if not stronger, than any of its predecessors. NEW YORK, June 4.—The next regatta on the Harlem river will be held by the Union Boat Club June 14.

Capt. Frank J. Connell has arranged a good program, including several open races, and the regatta will be a reception at the clubhouse in the evening.

HIGH CLASS HORSES IN TODAY'S HANDICAP

Terra Firma and Little Scout Entered in the Fourth Event, Which Is the Feature of the Fair Grounds Card—Race Is a Mile and an Eighth.

BY R. D. WALSH.

The feature event of this afternoon's racing at the Fair Grounds will be the fourth race. It is a handicap at a mile and an eighth and has a high-class field engaged. Terra Firma and Little Scout are entered at practically even weights and will renew their battle of Saturday, when the latter made such a remarkable showing against his rival.

Saturday's contest between these crack 3-year-olds was run over a sloppy track, but while it will not be fast today, it will be good. The Bennett and Cahn horse will, therefore, meet under different conditions, and think the result will be favorable to Terra Firma. The difference in their weights in Saturday's race was eight pounds; today it will be only one pound.

I think, therefore, that Terra Firma will show his heels to George Bennett's track in this afternoon's handicap. Little Scout, however, is not in my estimation the dangerous element in the race. I regard Wax Taper and Alice Turner as the real contenders. The latter is probably more than 100 pounds heavier, and defeating Found and Peaceful at one mile and seventy yards, proves one thing.

And that is, that Taper has retained some of his last season's speed. It is a serious contention by anybody that saw the way in which he finished on Monday and now after the race he has been in the judge's stand on three less than his physical infirmities are passed away. His owner, however, would hardly expect him unless he was fit to race.

In view of the fact that he is entered in today's handicap and also that he is in the Club Members' Handicap Saturday, the presumption is that he is able to face the starter, and I must reluctantly take that aspect of the case. The additional seven pounds which Taper will carry today will not diminish his chance of victory in the least.

A GOOD WEIGHT CARRIER.

His record as a weight carrier is well known. If Monday's race had been at a mile and an eighth instead of at a mile and 70 yards, Taper would have won by a dozen lengths had he chosen to do so. He is the class of to-day's race and no three-year-old around St. Louis could give him an argument when he is half fit.

Alice Turner with only 55 pounds up has a great pull in the weights and I expect to see her set a fast pace all the way round. She has an undoubted chance to win and I consider it a pretty sure thing for her to run in the money.

Pinchloe was never good enough to successfully contend against the company he is in to-day.

This will be his first start anyway for nearly a year, and is probably meant as an experiment. Jordan's recent races here have been such a success that the company of him, and I do not think he will be one, two, while Helen Print is a good horse, the distance is probably more than she likes even with only 55 pounds up. I like Alice Turner, Wax Taper, Alice Turner, Terra Firma.

The fifth race should bring about another good contest between Love's Labour and South Breeze. The distance is a mile and a quarter, and a quartet, Encyria, Irving Mayor, Deloraine and Campus appear to me to have no possible chance to win.

Love's Labour beat Campus handily by three lengths Monday and should have no trouble in repeating the performance this afternoon. South Breeze has not been out since May 7, but she has been given regular work and is reported in good condition. She and Love's Labour should have the race between them, and poor old George Lee might possibly run into third place.

GOUDY WON EASILY.

May 9 Goudy defeated a field of 11 2-year-olds easily two lengths at half a mile. He made the time in 49s, and could have done much better had he been forced to do so. Among the horses he beat on that occasion was Maltorfer and he did so giving him 10 pounds. They meet today with the same difference in weight, and the result should be the same.

May 6 Goudy defeated Maltorfer at half a mile on a muddy track by six lengths, and gave him eight pounds. On these figures he seems to me—with an even start—to be an absolute certainty I cannot understand on what basis or theory Maltorfer is selected to win from Goudy today. The former should be second, however, and I expect to see him finish in that position.

The fight for second place should be between Ed Layson and Lady Winkle, with the chances in favor of the latter.

The second and third races are of the selling variety for a lot of canines that have been sold to the public. The first is a very good one, but I do not see anything in the second that should beat him.

He has shown much speed for this distance on several occasions, and as the field opposed to him today is a poor one, he may be able to finish in front of it. Terra Incognita likes a longer route, and Cora Havell is a real horse, but the latter are really no good. In a race May 10 Alice Holland was at the front for seven furlongs.

If she can do as well this afternoon she Tact.

Tact is the most valuable assistant in everyday life, social and business. There is tact in dressing. A little diplomacy in dressing does a world of good. If you don't possess this kind of tact the next best thing to do is to get a tailor who has his own kind of tact, and being able to tell a man what he needs, and looking in his windows at the very latest summer fabrics and the prices.

THE 36 REASONS OF HARLEQUIN.

Harlequin's Master failed to keep a dinner engagement.

"There are thirty-six reasons for it," said Harlequin, in apology to the host.

"The first reason is that he is dead!"

There are fully thirty-six reasons why Regal shoes, outwear all others, at $3.50.

The first, and all sufficient reason, is that no make of shoes at $3.50—except The Regal—uses genuine Oak Sole leather, in every pair, and proves it.

"Live Oak" soles is the costliest, and toughest foundation, that can be put under any shoe at any price.

"Tannery to Consumer" is the first of 36 reasons why Live Oak soles, and King Calf uppers—can be used in Regal Shoes, at $3.50.

Style Book tells about it.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 4.—The St. Louis Browns, after having practically won the game with Baltimore here yesterday, went still further on their toogeaning tour down the peninsula today, coming largely to the indifferent pitching of Frank Donovan.

In the third inning the Browns hammered out five runs and everything looked rosy. In the same inning, however, Baltimore started out after Donovan, and for the next three innings made life miserable for the visitors. Six runs were made in bunches of two and four and another was annexed in the seventh off Sudhoff.

St. Louis managed to squeeze out another run in the eighth, but it did not good, the visitors still having a margin. Score:
